MAYOR DELLUMS SAYS CITY WILL MAINTAIN WARMING CENTER UNTIL WEDNESDAY

Oakland, CA — In anticipation of continued extreme cold weather conditions, the City of Oakland is maintaining one Warming Center to provide services to those vulnerable populations who are most at-risk and not prepared to cope with the cold conditions. The Willie Keys Recreation Center warming center will be open today at 4pm through the morning of Wednesday, December 17. There will be 50 cots available. Hot meals will be provided in the evening and light lunch in the afternoon.
